Assistant/Associate/Professor of Law (Legal Writing) – Continuing Non-Tenure Track

Villanova University Charles Widger School of Law seeks one outstanding lawyer-educator to join its legal writing faculty beginning in the 2025-2026 academic year. We seek applicants interested in teaching in our first -year legal writing and second-year transactional writing courses.

Villanova's Legal Writing Program includes required courses in both the first and second years of law school. Legal writing faculty are a vital part of the Villanova Law community; they have partial voting rights and serve on law school committees and in leadership positions. Legal writing faculty are not required to engage in scholarship, but those who do receive support.

Villanova is a Catholic university sponsored by the Augustinian order. Diversity and inclusion have been and will continue to be integral components of Villanova University's mission. The University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer and seeks candidates who understand, respect and can contribute to the University's mission and values.

Candidates must apply online and include:

- Application cover letter,
- Current and complete curriculum vitae,
- Statement of teaching philosophy,
- All application materials must be sent to appointments@law.villanova.edu